MIGHTY IN SINEWS OF WAR

If Wealth Is Any Test This Country
Could Stagger Any Hostile
Combination.

If we accept Professor Atkinson's estimate that the Civil war cost $8,000,000,000, and remember that the national wealth, including slaves, was placed by the census at only $16,159,616,068 in 1860, and at only a little more than $30,000,000,000 in depreciated currency even five years after the war had ended, it is seen that the struggle between the states cost between one-fourth and one-half of their then existing wealth.

All calculations as to what wars cost are subject to grievous and even monumental errors. Albert W. Atwood writes in the Saturday Evening Post. But this much we know: The north raised nearly $4,000,000,000 in loans and the south raised $2,000,000,000. Call it $6,000,000,000 actually obtained for war purposes by the two opposing sections.

If the north and south in conflict could spend $6,000,000,000 on war half a century ago, what could the united country assemble for such a purpose today, with ten times the wealth? This country has a puny, negligible national debt. The European countries were enormously—almost ruinously—in debt before they began their war, some of them with ten to fifteen times as much debt per capita as the United States. Yet they have already floated $30,000,000,000 of bonds, and the end is nowhere in sight.

The total aggregate wealth of all the belligerents is hardly more than one-third greater than ours. If wealth is any test this country could stagger almost any conceivable combination that might be formed against it.

SALESWOMAN GOT WRONG TIP

Finally Discovered That Her Customer
Was in a Way English and Yet
Not "English."

A well-dressed young woman stepped off the elevator in one of the department stores and started to make her way toward the millinery department. From the manner in which the floor walker stepped up and addressed her, calling her by name, it was obvious that she was a customer whose patronage was sought. She intended to buy a hat, she informed the floor walker, and he escorted her to the millinery department, called for the head woman and introduced her to the customer.

"Miss Smith," he said, addressing the saleswoman, "this is Miss Hobbs." And then, with instructions to see that the customer saw the best in the store, the floor walker departed.

The saleswoman, observant student of human nature, was effusive in her attentions, but she had heedlessly disregarded the name of her customer. Miss Hobbs' favor seemed to rest with a plainly tailored hat.

"That is an English walking hat," the saleswoman explained. "It looks perfectly stunning on you. It looks as though it were just made for you. Are you English?"

"No," said the customer absent-mindedly, as she adjusted the hat further over her eyebrows. "My name is English, but—"

"Ah, yes, Miss English, I noticed that. Are you any relation to Captain English?"

The young woman, with an effort, controlled the expression on her face, and managed to explain to the embarrassed saleswoman that her name was not "English," but that she had an English name.—Indianapolis News.

Legislative "Work."

Congressman Bennet of New York was talking on the floor of the house the other day and Ben Hilliard of Colorado asked him to yield just for an easy twenty-bit while he asked a question. The nature of the question does not concern us, but Bennet replied:

"I'm a Yankee and so I'll answer the gentleman's question by asking another question." And he did so.

"I'm a bit of a Yankee myself," replied Hilliard, "and I'll answer the gentleman's question by asking another question."

Whereupon Bennet fell back on his Yankee prerogative and asked still another question.

Thus the thing went on until one of them got tired and they called it fifty-fifty—with none of the questions answered.

China Sales to U. S. Increase.
The United States is annually increasing its purchases from Chinese merchants. Last year was a banner year for the Orientals engaged in American trade, their total sales aggregating $33,496,497, an increase of $14,450,427 over the previous year, according to invoice records of the American consulate at Shanghai.

Chinese dyestuff and indigo merchants are reaping large profits from the sale of their accumulated stocks. Consul Sammons at Shanghai reported. Some of America's big purchases in the year showed the following increases: Gold bar shipments, $3,170,754; raw silk, $2,840,195; straw braid $301,496, and sheep's wool, $566,067.

Burn 90,000 Bad Eggs.

One way to get rid of bad eggs is to burn them. Federal officials set fire to 90,000 of them at Washington when the department of agriculture pure food experts declared the eggs to be unfit for food. The eggs had been placed in storage in a stable, and were discovered, then the District of Columbia supreme court condemned them.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
No Alum—No Phosphate

EASY AS ROLLING OFF A LOG.

The Boston Post is disposed to poke fun at Republican managers, when it says that all that has been necessary, according to them, to win the great doubtful states of Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Ohio was to turn Mr. Hughes loose in a speech or two and the thing was done. And now the evasive candidate has only to open his mouth in a sufficient number of Democratic states and behold there is no need of an election. Nothing in the nature of a sure thing has been easier since the histrionic career of Col. Mulberry Sellers. It is doubtful if Candidate Hughes has won enough votes in his swing around the circle to make an impression, while it is absolutely certain that his evasive speeches have added votes to the Democratic column. The people hate a dodger and a straddler. Mr. Hughes has not increased the respect for him in his efforts as a 100 per cent candidate. A common scold is a very undesirable citizen and that is all Mr. Hughes is.

The Nov. American Magazine

Charles M. Schwab, the Bethlehem steel man, has written a stimulating and inspiring article for the November issue called "Succeeding With What You Have." In it he gives you the angle from which the boss looks at his men.

A new department called "Getting Ahead" is started and the public is invited to ask questions about how to advance in the business world. The most helpful questions will be answered in the pages of the magazine.

There are several other good articles, one of the best being "Weather and Business," which tells how the elements affect business. "Public Health" is discussed by Dr. Richard C. Cabot; "$5,000 Worth of Experience" is written by a man who feels he has earned that amount through mistakes; and the theatrical article deals with famous mimics. The state article is about "Ohio," and was written by Brand Whitlock, United States Minister to Belgium.

The fiction includes the second installment of "Cinderella Jane"; "Broken Ribs," by Olive Higgins Prouty; and stories by John Taintor Foote, Jack Lait and Ralph Stuart.

The interesting People department is excellent this month as is the Habit department. There are the usual contributions to the family money.

The First Steam Engines.

The first known use of steam to drive a kind of steam engine was described by Hero of Alexandria, probably in the first or second century B. C. But the first real steam engines were those used at the end of the seventeenth and in the early eighteenth centuries for pumping water out of mines. Newcomer's engine was used in English mines about 1711.

PURELY PERSONAL

Miss May Bell Hill is visiting her brother, Dr. Robert Hill, in Cadiz.

Mrs. Nick Laman, of Elkton, is visiting Mrs. Mallory Gill, at Mrs. Mollie Wall's.

Miss Oley Bartley is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. G. Jernigan, near Greenville.

Mrs. T. C. Jones, of Rich, left Monday for Wichita, Kan., to visit relatives.

Lieut. A. H. Clark left last night with his recruiting squad for Fort Thomas, having been ordered to the border.

Arthur S. Reeder, of the Cooper Loose Floor clerical force, has gone to Henderson to have charge of the Cooper & Rash loose floor.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rodman, of Louisville, will return home to-day, after a week's visit to the family of Dr. T. W. Blakey.

R. E. Cooper, one of Hopkinsville's leading boosters, was in Henderson Monday and made a speech at the meeting called to reorganize the Commercial Club. Mr. Cooper has several times made addresses in Henderson and is always given an attentive hearing and never fails to tell how things are done in the city to whose prosperity he is so important a contributor.

Sen. James at Madisonville

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 18.—Not since W. J. Bryan made his first appearance here has there been such a gathering of democratic forces as were here Tuesday afternoon to hear the speech of Senator Ollie M. James. Senator James spoke to an audience that packed the Garrick theater, the largest building in the city, from top to bottom and several hundred were unable to even get in hearing distance of the speaker.

Logan Trial On.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Mack Logan, etc., charged with wilful murder, as the result of the tragedy at Dawson Springs when Chief of Police K. H. Keach and Dick Rogers were killed, was brought to trial at Madisonville Monday.

Out of the twenty-four petit jurors only four qualified and Superintendent of Schools, L. R. Ray, was appointed special-bailiff to summons a number of men to appear. The entire week will probably be taken up in this trial. Judge Breathitt, of Hopkinsville, and Cox & Gray, of that city, are assisting the prosecution while Gordon, Gordon & Moore and Yost & Franklin represent the defendant.

BARES G. O. P. VOTE STEAL PLOT

Independent Paper Charges
Wide Spread Republican
Negro Colonization Frauds.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Under the heading, "state wide frauds seen in Chicago plot, Chicago is involved," the Chicago Daily News, one of the great independent newspapers of the country, today exposed the scheme of republican leaders to steal the electoral vote of Illinois and other middle western states through the importation and colonization of negroes.

The News, which devotes several columns to what it intimates is a wide spread attempt to defeat the re-election of President Wilson through fraudulent methods, had assigned a staff of men to the task of uncovering the republican plan to debauch the ballot in pivotal states.

Every Democrat Expected To Do His Duty.

There are five campaign committeemen in each precinct in the state whose duty it is to see that every Democrat or other person who will vote the Democratic ticket shall go to the polls on Nov. 7th and cast his ballot. These gentlemen have been appointed because of their enthusiasm and energy and it is safe to assume that they will do their full duty. If they do and a full vote is recorded there will be no doubt of the outcome. Kentucky is naturally a Democratic State and it is only when Democrats fail of their duty that she departs from her traditions. There is every reason this year that every Democrat should be alert and let nothing keep him from the polls. President Wilson must be kept on guard to protect the honor of the nation without war if possible, and to maintain peace and prosperity. What he has done is an earnest of what he will do to carry out the splendid program mapped out. Be sure to go to the polls and stamp under the rooster.

C. P. Meeting A Week.

As has been previously announced, the meeting at the Cumberland Presbyterian church will continue through the week, or at least until tomorrow night, at which time, it is understood, Dr. Courtner will be obliged to leave the city to meet other engagements. Large crowds attend the night services and the afternoon services are growing in interest as well.

Accepts Job in Hopkinsville.

Dick Ware, who has been connected with the Owensboro Wagon company for a number of years, being foreman of the blacksmith department, left today for Hopkinsville where he has accepted a position as superintendent of the Mogul Wagon Works. Mr. Ware is one of Owensboro's best known citizens, and was a former member of the Democratic council.—Owensboro Enquirer.

Street of Authors.

It would be interesting to know the name of the lover of the "Vicar of Wakefield" who sought to show his affection for this classic tale in naming the streets which lie about the old parish church of Leyton. For we find here streets named after Goldsmith, Oliver, Thornhill, Wilmott, Burchell, Primrose and Sojha. Probably Bath of all towns has paid the most liberal tribute to the famous in its street nomenclature. Its roads, avenues, places and rows commemorate the names of Shakespeare, Kipling, Milton, Longfellow, Chaucer, Shelley, Tennyson, Byron, Macaulay, Nelson, Fielding, Landseer, Rosebery, Chatham, Livingstone, Gladstone, Evelyn, Gordon and Brougham.—London Chronicle.

Putting Him Wise.
